The second melee between the Lawmakers and the Red Sox yesterday was much more sanguinary than the first. There were many moments of tumult in the breasts of the partisans of both teams, but in the round up the tumultuousness was confined in the main to the horde that was pulling for Lippe's boys.

Although it was not as fast a game in point of time as that played Thursday, there was much more contemporaneous human interest centered in it by reason of some doubtful decisions against the locals, who in spite of that, came together in the ninth inning and pounded out a victory to the tune of 2 to 1.

A peculiarly about the struggle was that Danville did all its playing at the start, while Richmond was up strong in the finish. The contest was perhaps the most exciting seen here this year, the result never being more doubtful. Danville got one man across the plate in the third round, and Richmond, after peering along for eight innings, sent the two winning runs across in the ninth.

Hits Were Bunched.
Heffron, Lippe and Kanzler were responsible for the victory. They got three clean hits in succession. Heffron's being a two-bagger and Kanzler's being good for the same. Lippe's necessary for him to run, but the game was over.

Both Revelle and Walker were touched up for some heavy hits, but the former was scattered better than the latter. In the seventh inning Umpire Byron drew popular disapproval on account of calling back Kanzler to first after he had stolen second and calling Riggs out on the charge that he had interfered with the catcher's throw to second. He also declared that Messitt should pay a fine of $5, and he put him off the field for the remainder of the game.

Manager Lippe stated later that Messitt had merely approached to speak with him as he was arguing with Byron, and that the catcher was not guilty of any offense to the umpire. In the first round Riggs and Richmond went out one, two, three. In the second Tyndeman led off with a two-base whack to left field, and was sacrificed to third by Stafford. Tyndeman, however, was held on by the catcher, and went out at first, and when he tried to come in on Ryan's grounder to second he was flagged at the plate.

Powell Scores.
In the third Powell came up first and slashed out a neat three-bagger to center field, scoring on the throw in of Doyle's fly. Tyndeman, after that, not a man reached third. Messitt, who hit the ball both times up, got to first on a single to left in the last half of the third, but when Revelle grounded to short both runners went out on a double from Fisher to Doyle to Stafford.

In the fifth Riggs lined a hot drive over second. The ball bounded over Powell's head, and Riggs drew up at third, where he was left as Sandherr died at first. Titman fanned, and Iron flew out to left field. After Messitt had singled to center in the next frame he worked his way to third on Revelle's sacrifice, and Heffron's out, but Lippe sent a fly to right that retired the side. In the seventh inning Kanzler reached first on a neat bunt. Then, when Riggs came up, he stole second, but Umpire Byron's decision to let him back to first and Riggs was called out. Kanzler stole second again, however, passing to third as Sandherr went out at first, but was caught off the last bag, and put out on a fluke squeeze play.

Wit in the Ninth.
Then came the ninth. Seibie, amid applause, came to bat for Revelle, but Fisher scooped up his difficult ground-

er, throwing him out at the initial bag. Heffron was next to bat, and walloped a long fly to left field for two bases. Lippe followed with an smashing single to center, scoring Heffron, and reaching third on his own fumble off the throw in. While the fans cheered themselves hoarse, then came Kanzler, who assaulted the second ball thrown over, sending it between and beyond the fielders. Lippe trotted home, and the game was over. ROANOKE WINS SNAPPY CONTEST
[Special to The Times-Dispatch].
ROANOKE, VA., June 12.—The Highlanders turned the tables on the Triangles this afternoon and beat them out in a beautifully played game by a score of 4 to 1. For the first five innings the locals could not get a man across the plate, but in the fifth hit three men scored.

Portsmouth made her only run in the second inning on hits by Larkin and Lawrence. Morrissey and Hamilton were the opposing slayers, and while both pitched good ball, Morrissey had a shade the better of the argument. No misplays were recorded against either team. The score:

SWAMP HAGERSTOWN

[Special to The Times-Dispatch].
WINCHESTER, VA., June 12.—Winchester outplayed Hagerstown at every stage of today's game at Reservoir Park and won easily, 6 to 0. The contest was the first run and one by Hager made it possible for the bases to fill in the sixth, and Schuman forced the winning score over with a pass. A fluke double by Bowen, a sacrifice, and Westlake's clean drive in the ninth gave the locals their only score and the only earned run of the game. The score:

Wise Talks by the Office Boy

I guess honestly wouldn't be such a valuable trait if it was for its rarity. Don't you know there is an awful lot of people in the world working the others for chumps, and making it pay? Well, if we wanted to get all the people some of the time, and sacrifice our good name for the sake of a few dollars, I guess we could do it. It would be easy enough to mark our $100 shirts $1.50, give one-fourth off, and get $112.50 for them. We could mark our $20.00 suits $30.00, give one-fourth off, and get $22.50. We could go down the line and make fully 10 per cent. more on our merchandise, and you might not find it out, because you can fool part of the people all the time. But that is not straight business, and we believe we have the confidence of the people, and we don't intend to lose it. The boss showed me how I could tell our coats by the nice, snug way that they were made. He showed me the close fitting lapels and the good fitting vest. Lots of suits are spoiled by a poor fitting vest, but not at our store. Buy a suit for you from $7.50 up to $30.00. Come in.
